Does My Bum Look Big in This?

British body armour manufacturers T-Pro sent along a pair of new armoured under-shorts for us to try out. The Action Pro-plus shorts are top of T-Pro's armoured shorts range. Made from tight fitting Coolmax they are of a similar construction to Lycra cycling shorts. T-Pro's own flexible CE approved armour is stitched to all of the relevant vulnerable areas, and once slipped on, they give plenty of reassuring support to your nether regions! Ideal under leathers or MX pants, the T-Pro shorts are both comfortable and protective. So much so that when Warren Steele saw these he immediately blagged a pair for himself.

I personally find that most of the standard armour fitted in leather race suits is bulky and restrictive. By removing the hip armour from my suit and donning a pair of these sexy looking T-Pro shorts it allows the rider much easier movement on the bike. Err it feels quite nice too! Not a new idea but T-Pro's flexi armour is so comfortable you don't know you're wearing it and of course it will stay put when the inevitable get-off occurs.

- Verdict: No more VPLs.
- Price: £49.99
